

Barriers and Paths to Inclusion for Transgender People in the Workplaces in Norway

Examining the gap between systems and practice of D&I policy

This presentation explores the inclusion of transgender individuals in the workplace in Norway, examining both current practices and prevailing barriers. Despite progressive legal frameworks and increasing societal acceptance, transgender employees often face significant challenges. It will offer opportunities for reflection and discussion of practices in Norway.

Isak Jacobsen

イサク・ヤコブセン

PhD Candidate, Norwegian University of Science and Technology

23 Oct. 2024 wed. 9:30-10:30

Open to the Public (admission free)

Online: Zoom meeting (with English-Japanese consecutive interpreting)

Registration form

【Organizer】 Institute for Gendered Innovations, SIP Project and NTNU- Ochanomizu Project

【Inquiry】 SIP Project Office ocha-sip3@cc.ocha.ac.jp